Ava's dad Elihas starr was fired from Hank pym's company. To prove he was right he tried to make a portal into the quantum realm. It went wrong and was about to explode and Ava's dad went to stop it. Ava ran after him then Ava's mom ran after her before it exploded. She woke up to find that both her parents were dead and that her body would be torn apart and rebuilt all over again for the rest of her life. This gave her the ability to move through solid objects and become invisible. Bill Foster a friend of her father found her and took her into S.H.I.E.L.D's care. As she got older she went to work for S.H.I.E.L.D on missions and worked as an assassin, but later because of the uprisings of H.Y.D.R.A. went back into hiding with bill where he promised to find a cure.
